

Southwest Center

THE POWER OF YOUR GIFT

Because of you, individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities are able to experience life to its fullest with the support SWC provides. Thank you!

1,040 Community Engagements

Because of you, Angie and her SWC friends are able to enjoy all Louisville has to offer from restaurants and concerts to local attractions and even regional travel. They get to explore new places, and try new things. You make freedom of choice an option for them.

2,600 Day Training Programs

With your generosity, Jeff and other individuals participate daily in learning life skills - healthy cooking and eating, personal hygiene, and navigating errands and chores. They also get to try new hobbies, and participate in art activities. Your support make it possible for him and them to live as independently as they can.

Residential Support

Because you care, Nick and 29 other individuals are able to live in seven staff supported homes. While Family Home Providers open their hearts and houses to provide homes and support for another 30 individuals. Soon assisted technology will make independence available to even more SWC supported adults.

86,186 Miles

With your support, SWC's professional drivers and fleet provide dependable, safe transportation to outings, doctor's appointments, work, and fun for Todd and the other individuals we support. Allowing each of them to be participating community members.

New Spaces & New Programs

With your gift, SWC is adding a new art space, a movie theater, and work-out room for trainer led Yoga, Zumba and other activity programs. These spaces will help Angie, Jeff, Nick and all their SWC friends create healthy habits, and offer a space for creative expression and enjoyment.

Your support is vital as we strive to help people reach their dreams and goals. SWC works in innovative ways to support people with intellectual and developmental disabilities to be happy in their community. Please donate today!
